Welcome

The Liturgy of the Palms

Clergy Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord.

People Peace in heaven and glory in the highest.

Clergy Let us pray.

Assist us mercifully with your help, O Lord God of our salvation, that we may enter with joy upon the contemplation of those mighty acts, whereby you have given us life and immortality; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Deacon then reads the story of the triumphal entry into Jerusalem.

Luke 19:29-40

Jesus went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. When he had come near Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, saying, "Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' just say this, 'The Lord needs it.'" So those who were sent departed and found it as he had told them. As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, "Why are you untying the colt?" They said, "The Lord needs it." Then they brought it to Jesus; and after throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it. As he rode along, people kept spreading their cloaks on the road. As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen, saying, "Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!" Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, order your disciples to stop." He answered, "I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out."

Clergy The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Clergy Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right to praise you, Almighty God, for the acts of love by which you have redeemed us through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. On this day he entered the holy city of Jerusalem in triumph, and was proclaimed as King of kings by those who spread their garments and branches of palm along his way.

Let these branches be for us signs of his victory, and grant that we who bear them in his name may ever hail him as our King, and follow him in the way that leads to eternal life; who lives and reigns in glory with you and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

Clergy Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

People Hosanna in the highest.

Priest Let us go forth in peace.

People In the name of Christ. Amen.

Opening Hymn

All Glory, Laud, and Honor

Hymn 154

All glory, laud, and honor
to thee, Redeemer, King!
to whom the lips of children made sweet hosannas ring.

Thou art the King of Israel,
thou David's royal Son,
who in the Lord's Name comest,
the King and Blesséd One.

The company of angels is praising thee on high;
and we with all creation
in chorus make reply.

The people of the Hebrews with palms before thee went;
our praise and prayers and anthems before thee we present.

To thee before thy passion they sang their hymns of praise;
to thee, now high exalted,
our melody we raise.

Thou didst accept their praises;
accept the prayers we bring,
who in all good delightest,
thou good and gracious King.

Collect of the Day

Clergy The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Clergy Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, in your tender love for the human race you sent your Son our Savior Jesus Christ to take upon him our nature, and to suffer death upon the cross, giving us the example of his great humility: Mercifully grant that we may walk in the way of his suffering, and also share in his resurrection; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Reading

Philippians 2:5-11

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God,
did not regard equality with God
as something to be exploited,
but emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,
being born in human likeness.

And being found in human form,
he humbled himself
and became obedient to the point of death—
even death on a cross.

Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name
that is above every name,
so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 31:9-16

- ⁹ Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I am in trouble;
my eye is consumed with sorrow, and also my throat and my belly.
- ¹⁰ For my life is wasted with grief, and my years with sighing;
my strength fails me because of affliction, and my bones are consumed.
- ¹¹ I have become a reproach to all my enemies and even to my neighbors, a dismay to those of my acquaintance;
when they see me in the street they avoid me.
- ¹² I am forgotten like a dead man, out of mind;
I am as useless as a broken pot.
- ¹³ For I have heard the whispering of the crowd; fear is all around;
they put their heads together against me; they plot to take my life.
- ¹⁴ But as for me, I have trusted in you, O Lord.
I have said, “You are my God.
- ¹⁵ My times are in your hand;
rescue me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me.
- ¹⁶ Make your face to shine upon your servant,
and in your loving-kindness save me.”

Hymn

At the Name of Jesus

Hymn 435

At the Name of Jesus
every knee shall bow,

every tongue confess him
King of glory now;

'tis the Father's pleasure
we should call him Lord who from the beginning was the mighty Word.

Humbled for a season,
to receive a Name
from the lips of sinners, unto whom he came,
faithfully he bore it spotless to the last,
brought it back victorious,
when from death he passed;

bore it up triumphant,
with its human light,

through all ranks of creatures,
to the central height,
to the throne of Godhead,
to the Father's breast;
filled it with the glory of that perfect rest.

Name him, Christians, name him,
with love strong as death,
name with awe and wonder
and with bated breath;
he is God the Savior,
he is Christ the Lord,
ever to be worshiped,
trusted, and adored.

Prayers of the People

Leader

Let us pray for our own needs, and the needs of the world.

Brief silence

Faithful God, we depend on you for everything we need: for daily food, for guidance and protection, for healing in injury and comfort in sorrow. You respond in abundant provision. Thank you for your tender care.

Knowing your faithfulness in our own lives, we bring before you the lives of others, entrusting all things to your goodness and mercy. Bring healing to those who are ill in mind, body, or spirit. Bring release to those held captive by old hurts or new bonds that oppress and entangle. Bring comfort to all who suffer in any way.

We pray for people living in the midst of war. Protect citizens and soldiers alike, and teach us to put away our weapons, taking up instead words of peace and reconciliation. May we learn to live together graciously.

We pray for those who have died, and those who are struggling with grief, either ancient or new, especially those we name silently or aloud _____. May they know the comfort of your loving presence.

We pray for your church, oh Lord. Keep us faithful to the gospel, that we might serve your beloved world with glad and generous hearts. Renew your church with your Holy Spirit.

We pray for the people of every nation, especially for the weak, the vulnerable, and the oppressed. May justice and compassion flourish in every land.

Priest

Loving God, help us to see the world as you see it; to see others as you see them; and to see ourselves rightly. Pursue us with all your goodness and faithful love until goodness and faithful love fill every heart and inform every action. We pray these things in the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. Amen.

The Peace

Clergy The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

A Proper Preface is said here.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

BCP Page 362

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Music at Communion

O Sacred Head, Now Wounded

J.S. Bach

The Postcommunion Prayer

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

Fugue in D minor

J.S. Bach

Music Notes

Our prelude and postlude today are by Johann Sebastian Bach (1685 - 1750), the most prominent sacred composer of the Baroque Period. Bach was a devout Lutheran and dedicated every composition “to the glory of God.” His Fantasia in C minor which opens our service today is a sublime piece of music that reveals well the pathos and drama of the liturgy of Palm Sunday. Likewise at the end of the service, Bach’s Toccata in d minor is a powerful piece of drama that appropriately portends the drama of the Passion story we are preparing to read. The 7-minute reflective Fugue that accompanies this Toccata will be played at the end of the reading to provide a time of resting in the Spirit as we enter this HOLY WEEK. It ends with spectacular drama, fittingly appropriate for the horrific events of Good Friday. Please leave in silence at the end.

Music During Holy Week & Easter 2022

As with all worship, each component is planned and chosen carefully to make each service meaningful. St. James' is extremely blessed to have depth and talent in its music ministry. This Holy Week and Easter Season music is offered to the glory of God to enhance our worship together. You will find that special liturgies will offer special music.
